

Cuyahoga County
Public Library

May 2012 best sellers

Visit
cuyahogalibrary.org
to reserve these great titles and more!

fiction

Beginner's Goodbye

by Anne Tyler

Aaron is ripped apart by the death of his wife only to be gradually restored by her frequent appearances – in their house, on the roadway, in the market.

The Big Cat Nap

by Rita Mae Brown & Sneaky Pie Brown

To celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Mrs. Murphy mysteries, Rita Mae & Sneaky Pie return with this charming claw-biting tale.

Come Home

With her life back on track after a nasty divorce, Justine is thrust into turmoil when her step-daughter informs her of her ex-husband's murder.

Dorchester Terrace

by Anne Perry

As the newly appointed head of the Special Branch, Thomas Pitt feels he can't trust anyone as he investigates his own department for evidence of a mole.

Lyon's Bride

by Cathy Maxwell

Lord Lyon needs a wife but if he falls in love, he will die, according to the family curse. Maxwell visits the Parma-Snow Branch on May 15th. Please register.

The Man From Primrose Lane

by James Renner

David Neff is drawn into a reclusive eccentric's bizarre story four years after his murder. Renner visits the Strongsville Branch on June 6th and the Beachwood Branch on July 18th. Please register.

Stay Awake

by Dan Chaon
Chaon's fragile and searching characters wander between ordinary life and a psychological shadowland. Chaon visits the Bay Village Branch on May 16th. Please register.

Unnatural Acts

by Stuart Woods
Stone Barrington and friends witness the closing of their favorite haunt, the reappearance of a former assistant FBI director/serial killer Shelley Bach and the return of Herbie Fisher.

The Wind Through the Keyhole

by Stephen King

Stephen King returns to the rich landscape of Mid-World, the spectacular territory of the Dark Tower fantasy saga that stands as his most beguiling achievement.

Wish You Were Here

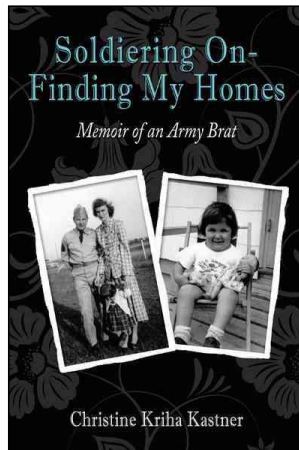

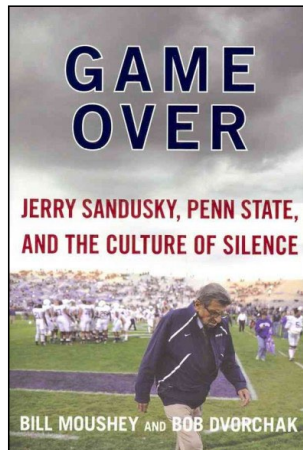

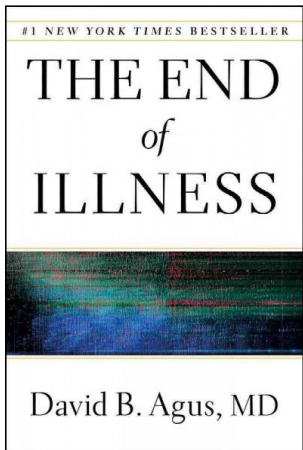

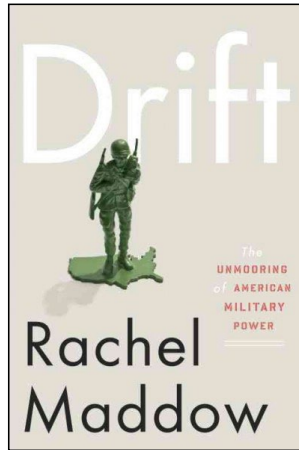

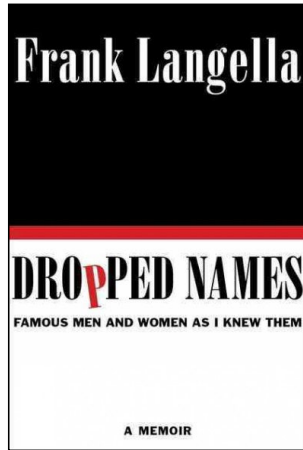

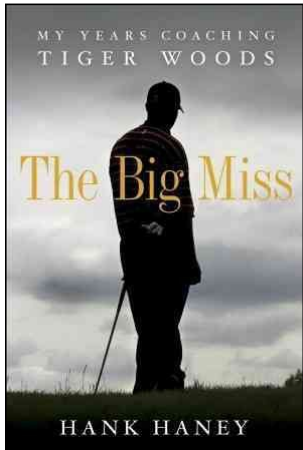

by Graham Swift

When Jack Luxton's estranged brother is killed in Iraq, he and his wife share a poignant journey to reclaim his remains.

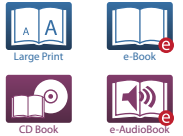

Cuyahoga County
Public Library

May 2012 best sellers

nonfiction

The Big Miss
by Hank Haney
796.352092 H193b
A candid and surprisingly insightful account relates Haney's tumultuous six-years coaching Tiger Woods.

Dropped Names: Famous Men & Women As I Knew Them
by Frank Langella
792.028092 L261d

Langella intersperses his own experiences with a collection of unforgettable encounters he has had with many of the 20th century's most intriguing personalities, including John F. Kennedy, Marilyn Monroe and more.

Drift by Rachel Maddow
306.270973 M264d
Maddow shows how deeply militarized our culture has become – how the role of the national security sector has shape-shifted and grown over the past century to the point of being financially unsustainable and confused in its mission.

The End of Illness
by David Agus / 613 Ag96e
Dr. Agus brings a totally new approach to the question "What is health?" in this monumental work that radically redefines our conventional conceptions of health and illness to offer new methods for living a long, healthy life.

Game Over: Jerry Sandusky, Penn State, and the Culture of Silence by Bill Moushey 364.153091748 M867g
Moushey covers the recent scandal that rocked the world of collegiate sports, surveying the key players, as well as the climate that allowed the alleged crimes to occur.

Soldiering on, Finding My Homes by Christine Kastner 355.120973 K155s
Kastner recalls memories from the 1960s as an army brat and her recent trip back to Okinawa, an island her family was stationed at more than forty years ago. Kastner visits the Brook Park Branch on May 16th. Please register.

Visit cuyahogalibrary.org to reserve these great titles and more!