

Cuyahoga County
Public Library

May 2012 coming soon

Visit
cuyahogalibrary.org to reserve these great titles and more!

fiction

11th Hour

by James Patterson & Maxine Paetro Lindsay Boxer investigates the murder of a millionaire whose death is linked to the deaths of four San Francisco criminals by a weapon which should have been in her department's evidence locker.

Helen Keller in Love

by Rosie Sultan
Sultan has written a novel based on the little-known love story between Helen Keller and her private secretary, Peter Fagan.

Afraid to Die

by Lisa Jackson
When two frozen female bodies are found posed and wearing jewelry belonging to Detective Selena Alvarez, she and her partner set out to investigate how this could happen.

Home

by Toni Morrison
Frank Money returns from the Korean War to a letter stating that he needs to rescue his gravely ill younger sister and return her to their hometown.

Blaze of Glory

by Jeff Shaara
Shaara returns to the action-packed Western Theater of the Civil War for a vivid re-creation of one of the war's bloodiest and most iconic engagements at the Battle of Shiloh.

Overseas

by Beatriz Williams
A cynical Wall Street analyst falls uncharacteristically in love with a mysterious billionaire in this romance with mystical ties to a relationship between a World War I British officer and a beautiful young American.

Bring Up the Bodies

by Hilary Mantel
Mantel returns to the heart of Tudor history with the story of the downfall of Anne Boleyn in this sequel to the Man Booker Prize-Winning Wolf Hall.

Shadow of Night

by Deborah Harkness Diana and Matthew continue their journey to discover the mystery of the enchanted manuscript in this sequel to the best-selling novel, A Discovery of Witches. Harkness visits the Berea Branch on Sunday, July 22nd. Please register.

The Divining

by Barbara Wood
In 54 C.E., during the reign of the Emperor Nero, Ulrika travels through the ancient world while learning about and honing her special gift of divining – the ability to heal and protect others.

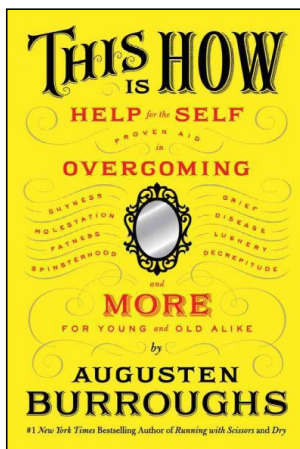

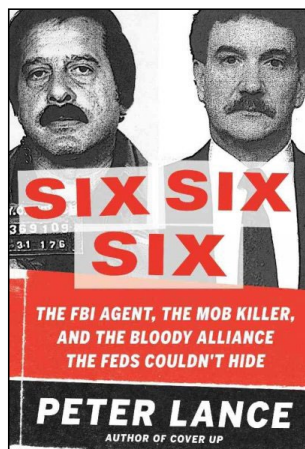

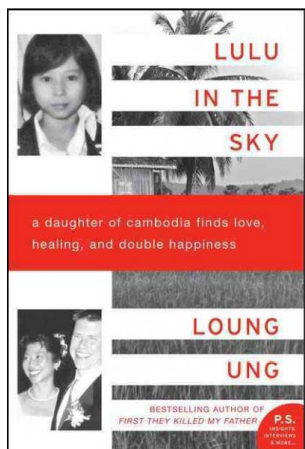

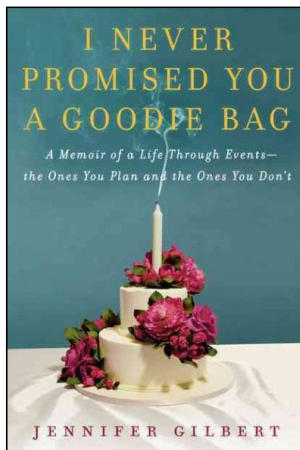

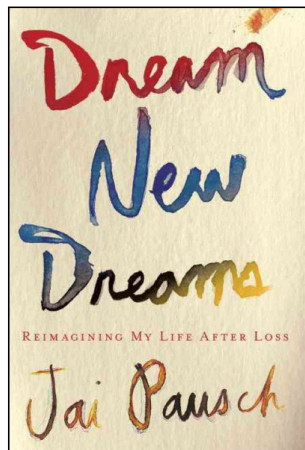

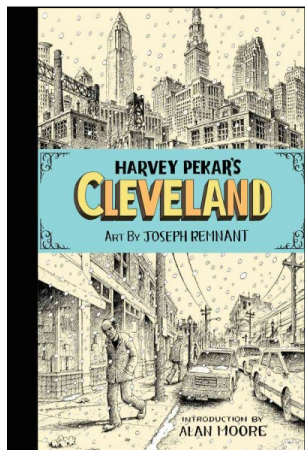

Stolen Prey by John Sandford
Lucas Davenport has seen many murder scenes but the brutal killing of a small-town Minnesota family is one of the worst, especially since it resembles drug-related killings.

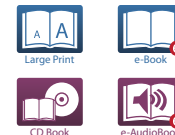

Cuyahoga County
Public Library

May 2012

coming soon

nonfiction

Cleveland

by Harvey Pekar
The late Pekar celebrated his hometown of Cleveland with an enthusiasm for a city he clearly loved, warts and all.

Dream New Dreams

by Jai Pausch
The widow of Randy Pausch, author of The Last Lecture, recounts her transitions from wife to caregiver to single parent and how she has sought to recapture hope and happiness.

I Never Promised You a

Goodie Bag

by Jennifer Gilbert
Gilbert shares memories of life through events, the ones you plan and the ones you don't.

Lulu in the Sky

by Loung Ung
A daughter of Cambodia finds love, healing and happiness in this third memoir by Cambodian American rights activist and bestselling author. Ung visits the Solon Branch on May 29th. Please register.

Six Six Six

by Peter Lance Lance tells the inside story of the FBI scandal involving top organized crime agent R. Linley DeVecchio, relating how he shared information with Mafia contacts that led to three murders and how the Justice Department attempted to cover up his crimes.

This Is How

by Augusten Burroughs Best-selling author Burroughs is a survivor with intimate knowledge of many of the topics he covers in his self-help book on overcoming shyness, molestation, fatness, spinsterhood, grief, disease and much more.

Visit cuyahogalibrary.org to reserve these great titles and more!